

Clearing the Way for Spirit!

Using Healing to Reawaken Your Truth

Are you living your life from a place of joy, from a place of peace? The only thing getting in the way to that experience all the time is an old association in your mind. We are all dealing with this deep, universal issue of mistakenly believing that we are in some way apart from Divinity itself. Luckily for all of us, this is not true. But, since it may be your experience, finding the avenue that leads out of this and into a deeper sense of your true reality is the path to peace and joy.

Energy healer Barret Hedeem will be guiding you on a journey into and through the dark spots within to help you claim your inherent love and happiness. This weekend of healing will incorporate inspired movement, group energy healing and deep inner dives. We'll be moving through the inner places asking for healing in a light-hearted and deeply compassionate way.

Major parts of the weekend experience will be diving into the teaching of A Course in Miracles and its undoing of time, Healing through Past Lives, and Tuning into our Major Energy Centers - the Chakras! This will all be taking place in the wonderful and rejuvenating Peaceful Meadow Retreat Center in Boulder, CO, offering us the perfect setting for integrating the wonderful shifts that will be occurring!

Barret Hedeem is the founder of Miracles U! – an Academy for A Course in Miracles.

He is the creator of The Witness Energy Healing, a non-dualistic form of healing to help you remember the truth that lies within. He guides you through past life issues to help you step free of unconscious karmic dynamics that are playing out in your life. Barret has written two books about his experience with the Course, Questions for J and the Love that He Gave Me, and Poems for J.
